Planners View Zoning For Multiple, Low-Cost Housing

By Sue Aucella Deacon

Next spring, annual town meeting may have the chance to create a new residential zone in Andover, one that would allow more dwelling units per site than the town's three existing single-residence zones, but fewer units than the existing apartment zone.

That is the goal of the Planning Board's Multi-Family Subcommittee, Chairman Margaret Bradshaw said Tuesday night, during a preliminary discussion of the subcommittee's current proposal.

A further goal is to create "reasonably-priced" housing in Andover, where high-priced housing is the norm — and that goal is proving a difficult one to achieve, Bradshaw indicated.

The planners have not released a draft of the multi-family subcommittee's zoning proposal. Nancy Jeton, principal planner on the Community Development and Planning staff, indicated Tuesday that the draft needs further refinement, including a legal review by Special Town Counsel Thomas Arnold, before it is ready for public consumption.

But the planners do intend to discuss their multi-family zoning proposal with the public before town meeting. The first in a series of public discussions and formal hearings is scheduled for the board's Dec. 11 meeting, to be held at town offices on Bartlet Street.

Chairman Bradshaw, who serves on the housing subcommittee along with planner Andrew Girdwood, reviewed some of the main points in the proposal Tuesday night. The provisions are aimed at encouraging "an alternative form of housing" in town, she emphasized — not just a new variation of the expensive and expensive houses that are now being built in Andover.

Ideally, multi-family developments should leave open space on each site and help preserve the natural environment, harmonize with neighboring developments, and place "no significant burden" on town services, the chairman said.

Multi-family sites should be served by town water and sewer lines, be located near consumer services and public transportation, and be adjacent to streets that could accommodate increased traffic, she added.

The population density allowed at each site would conform to current zoning, Bradshaw explained: that is, one dwelling unit per 15,000 square feet in the Single Residence A (SRA) zone, one per 30,000 square feet in SRB, and one per 43,560 square feet in SRC.

She noted that this would still be a lesser density than what is currently allowed in the apartment zone: no less than 3,500 square feet for each unit on a lot, and no more than 12 units per building.

(A developer may calculate the number of units allowed on a site by subtracting 90 percent of the wetlands and flood plains on the site from the total site area, then dividing the result by the minimum lot size required in the zone, Bradshaw explained.)

In addition to this "one-to-one" density ratio, the subcommittee has developed other possible criteria for multi-family developments: lots must be at least 10 acres but no larger than 25 acres; 75-foot setbacks must be provided at all borders; there must be at least 50 feet between each building; buildings may be no more than 35 feet or two and one-half stories high (the current height requirement for all single residence zones).

According to the current proposal, the new zoning would allow three to six units per building, each with a separate entrance; and no more than 60 percent of the units could include more than two bedrooms. There would be two parking spaces per unit, and no more than 12 spaces in each parking area.

At least 60 percent of each site should remain as permanent open space, Bradshaw said, and at least half of that open space must be accessible and suitable for recreational use (not wetlands).

All utilities would be underground, and landscaping would be used to create buffer zones around multi-family sites and their parking areas.

The Planning Board would review total site designs for each proposed multi-family development, according to the subcommittee's proposal, including plans for lighting, signs, earth removal and regrading, landscaping, waste disposal, drainage and snow removal — and a traffic analysis as well.

Perhaps the stickiest problem addressed by the subcommittee, the chairman said, is how to encourage moderately-priced housing. And just what would be considered moderately-priced in Andover?

The average house in town sells for somewhere around $125,000, the planners indicated, so $80,000 might be deemed "affordable" — but that remains debatable, and the subcommittee has yet to reach any conclusions, Bradshaw said.

Still, the chairman all but concluded that it may be unrealistic to expect any private developer to build moderately-priced units, given the high cost of land and the healthy housing market in Andover — regardless of any bonuses the planners might build into the zoning by-law to encourage lower-cost units.

Instead, Andover might consider forming some sort of public, non-profit organization to provide lower-cost housing. The town of Lexington followed that route to rehabilitate an unused school building into low-cost ($40,000 to $80,000) multi-family units, Bradshaw said. Lexington provided the land and the building, but made no profit on the sale of the units.

Such a plan would require the cooperation of the Andover Selectmen and the Andover Housing Authority, as well as state enabling legislation, the chairman said. Whether that plan could be developed in time for 1985 town meeting's consideration remains unclear.

The planners also looked at a map, prepared by the multi-family subcommittee, showing every parcel in town that might accommodate a multi-family development under the criteria currently proposed by the subcommittee.

That map was dotted with variously-sized parcels all over Andover, from West Andover to Ballardvale (examples: parcels off High Plain Road and Chandler Road, near West Parish Church and

To Install DeSalvo As President

Andover Building Inspector Sam DeSalvo will be installed as president of the Massachusetts Building Commissioner's and Inspector's Association at a dinner dance Saturday at the Andover Country Club.

Gerald Cohen, former state representative from Andover, will be the installing officer, assisted by Pat Pazzano, state building inspector from Methuen who is outgoing president.

Other officers to be installed include Ed Flynn, Worcester, vice president; Charles McArthur, Bedford, secretary; James Starratt, Lynn, treasurer; Joseph Lapomardo, Worcester, John Brophy, Woburn, Leo Daley, Andover, Joseph Caelluci, Cambridge, Robert Haskell, Marblehead and Ronald Wetmore, Chelmsford, directors.

DeSalvo was a contractor in the Andover area before accepting a position in the Andover building department under then inspector, Arthur Peatman. Married to the former Elaine Dumont, the couple has four children, Steven, Michael, Laurie Ann and Andrew.

The building division of the Andover Community Development and Planning department has 14 employees responsible for annual construction costs in the vicinity of $60,000,000 that generates fees in excess of $400,000.

Water Taste Is Nuisance, Not Hazardous

Andover's Public Works department has recently received a number of calls from townspeople expressing concern over a musty odor in the town's drinking water supply, DPW Director Robert McQuade noted this week.

According to the director, the odor has been caused by an increase in the algae population during the past month — specifically, the species anabaena, a blue-green algae associated with taste and odors. The unit count of this species began to decline during the last two weeks, producing a musty or earthy odor.

It is sometimes difficult to remove this odor with conventional treatments, McQuade said. But he emphasized that the taste and odor are merely a nuisance, not a health hazard — and are a temporary condition.

Trick-Treat Hours Are 5:30-8:15 P.M.

A reminder to trick-or-treaters planning to hit the streets of Andover next week: the Board of Selectmen have set official hours for Halloween visitations.

Last week, the board voted to allow trick-or-treating only during the hours of 5:30 to 8:15 p.m. next Wednesday night, Oct. 31.

The restriction is meant to make Halloween safer for youngsters celebrating the holiday in the hours after dark.

Veterans To Replace Flags On Graves

In preparation for Veterans Day services next month, members of the American Legion, Post 8 and the Veterans of Foreign Wars of Andover will place flags on the graves of Andover veterans on Sunday, Oct. 28, according to John L. Lewis, secretary of the Patriotic Holiday Committee.

Lewis reports that veterans will meet in Veterans' Headquarters in town offices on Whittier Street at 11 a.m. Sunday. They will replace more than 1,100 American flags on the graves of veterans interred in local cemeteries.

In the event of inclement weather, the work will be postponed until Sunday, Nov. 4.

Elderly Fuel Aid Applications Available

Andover residents of age 60 or older who have difficulty paying their fuel bills may be eligible for financial assistance, according to Dorothy M. Winn, coordinator of Elder Affairs for the town.

Winn reported this week that outreach workers from the Greater

Lawrence Community Action Council will be available to accept fuel assistance applications at the Andover Senior Center on Friday, Nov. 9, and Friday, Nov. 16.

Please call 470-3830 for further information, or to schedule appointments.

A.M.C. Explores Indian Ridge

A New England autumn should be enjoyed to the last drop, and this Sunday's (Oct. 28) hike with the Andover Committee of the Appalachian Mountain Club gives the perfect scenery. Led by Ron Valentine, the hikers will explore Indian Ridge Reservation, starting off behind Andover High School.

This reservation is the oldest of Andover's A.V.I.S. lands, dating back to its purchase in 1897 after a long struggle to preserve the area as open space.

The ridge formation was first thought to have been made by Indians because of many relics found there in the heavy woodland. However, geologists have determined that during the Ice Age, streams deposited gravel and soil in cracks made in the glacier. When the ice walls melted away from these deposits, long ridges, or esk-ers, remained. Hikers will see that the gravel was worn round by the water's action.

At some points the esker is 50 feet above surrounding land. The path begins below the ridge and slowly climbs to the height. The ridge itself is about ½ mile long.

Hikers will see many types of trees and shrubs in the woodlands and plants which thrive on the poor soil of the rocky esker. Where the soil is moist and rich below the ridge, different plants appear.

This walk will form a three-mile loop, including a trail through Baker's Meadow. It takes about an hour. Join the group whether or not you are an A.M.C. member or an experienced hiker. Meet at 1:30 p.m. in the parking lot behind Andover High School.

Y Benefit Features Mystery Theater

The cast of High Noon Productions will perform "Murder with a Twist" during a cocktail party at the Andover Contry Club on Friday, Nov. 9, from 8 p.m. to midnight. Proceeds from the performance will benefit the Andover-North Andover Y.M.C.A.

The acting troupe, which has performed similar benefits for the Carroll Center for the Blind and Rosie's Place in Boston, emphasizes that their production is an "audience-participating theater." The cast will interact with guests and a "murder" will be committed. From the clues assembled during the evening guests will be asked to solve the murder. A prize will be awarded to the party that can solve the mystery first.

Tickets will be available at the Andover-North Andover Y.M.C.A., 165 Haverhill St., Andover.

Selected To Participate In Conference

The National Council for the Social Sciences announced last week that Patricia Dye, 25 Smithshire Estates, was selected as one of ten American teachers to participate in the International Conference on Learning and Teaching About Europe to be held November 11-15 in Washington, D.C. The conference will focus on developing ways to give European and American students a better understanding of the common heritage and values they share. Historians and educators from 23 countries will attend this conference, sponsored by the Council of Europe and the Atlantic Council.

The first of these educational conferences was held two years ago in Germany and resulted in published guidelines for European teachers who teach American history and literature. Participants at this second conference will analyze what is and ought to be taught about Europe and prepare similar guidelines for use in both European and American schools. Mrs. Dye has taught in the Andover public schools for 15 years and is coordinating curriculum and program development for social studies in that school system.

The first woman artist from the west to perform with a Chinese orchestra will give the first of four concerts in the 1984-85 Concert series at Merrimack College.

Berenice Lipson-Gruzen, pianist, will perform works by Mozart, Beethoven, Debussy, Ravel and Chopin in the college's Church of Christ the Teacher on Saturday, Oct. 27, at 8 p.m.

Lipson-Gruzen also made musical history when she became the first western artist to record with a Chinese orchestra. Her recording of Chopin's Piano Concerto No. 2 with the Peking Central Philharmonic was released to critical acclaim last summer. Her first album, "The Joyous Isle," a collection of Debussy works, was released in 1980.

The New York-born pianist, considered one of the world's foremost interpreters of Chopin, has performed across the United States and in Europe, including performances at Lincoln Center and Carnegie Hall. She has also been a guest soloist with many of the country's leading orchestras.

Lipson-Gruzen's concert will be a recital with commentary, offering her audience insights into the works she will play.

This year's College Concert Series will include a performance of Handel's "Messiah" by the Indian Hill Chamber Orchestra and Boston Chorale on Sunday, Dec. 16; A March 14 concert by the New York Arts Ensemble and the return of the Indian Hill Chamber Orchestra on April 27.

Stookey Concert Tonight

Gospel-folksinger Noel Paul Stookey, formerly of the folkgroup Peter, Paul and Mary, will appear in concert at South Church tonight at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets may still be purchased at Liggett's in Shawsheen Plaza and Thompson's, 77 Main St.

Appearing with Stookey will be the Bodyworks Band: Dennis Bouchard, pianist-synthesizer; Jimmy Nalls, guitarist; Karla Thibodeau, vocalist; and Kent Palmer, vocalist-bass. Bodyworks accompanies Stookey on the road and records with him on the Newworld label at his studio in South Blue Hill, Maine.

Stookey brings a religious message to audiences of all ages. He personally was "born again" about 15 years ago in Austin, TX, during a concert tour with Peter and Mary. A young boy came backstage and said that God had put a burden on his heart for Stookey and that he could be reborn with God through Christ.

This is the first concert in the 1984-85 Performing Arts Series at South Church. It is sponsored by the music committee and proceeds will benefit the church's Organ Restoration Fund.

Future events include a Christmas performance by the Boston Archdiocesan Boy's Choir, the St. Paul's Men's Schola and the B.A.C.S. Handbell Choir on Saturday, Dec. 5, and a concert by Christian piano player "Dino" on February 2.

Shakespeare Company Performs

"A Midsummer Night's Dream," Shakespeare's comic fantasy of mismatched lovers, peasant clowns and forest sprites, will be performed by Shakespeare & Company on Saturday, Nov. 3, at 8 p.m. at the J. Everett Collins Center for the Performing Arts, Shawsheen Road.

Shakespeare & Co., under the direction of Tina Packer, has delighted audiences and critics alike with performances that recreate the spirit of Shakespeare's time.

"Shakespeare & Co.'s 'Dream' is a merry, rough and tumble production which views the romantic goings-on from the point of view of a smart boy who is not quite mature enough to become involved." So says the New York Times in its recent review of this production.

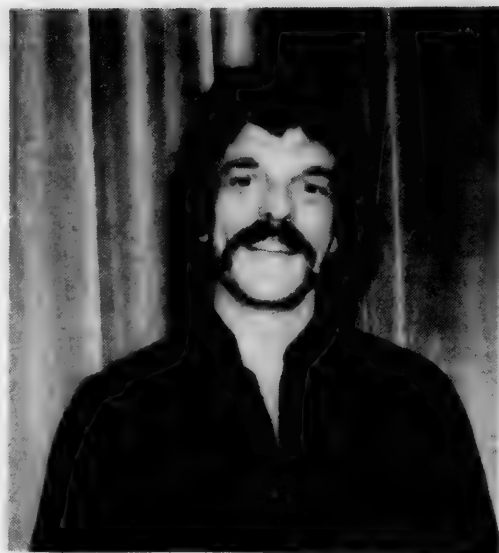

Critics have also hailed this production as one that should appeal especially to children, but intelligent and consistent enough in its view to engage adults as well.

The hallmark of Shakespeare & Co.'s productions is the clarity of the text. Each line, each phrase, is articulated so well that the meaning is extremely clear. Even though the characters may be speaking Elizabethan passages, the meaning comes through with vigor.

Shakespeare & Co. will perform in Andover as part of its four-week swing through the six-state New England area. They have played this production to sell-out audiences at every stop.

Tickets are available at the Collins Center box office daily from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m., the Andover and North Andover branches of the Andover Bank; and at "Just For You," 36 Main St., Andover. For group ticket information, contact the Collins Center box office.

Ellen Lampert Work On Exhibit

American Artists On Exhibit

"Phantoms and Melodramas," an exhibition of the work of four contemporary American artists at the Addison Gallery of American Art continues to November 24.

The myths and realities of living in the United States today are explored in this group show. The artists grapple with domestic and family life, everyday violence and the possibilities and limitation of the confusing and baffling environment. The boundaries between what is the reality of what we see and remember and what is fabrication are depicted in ways at times humorous, at times horrific.

Ellen Lampert, from Los Angeles, depicts the plight of the average housewife overcome and influenced by a television society which is being destroyed by the violence outside the windows in her canvases. Vibrant colors, loosely painted, convey the energy and discord of her content. Paul Oberst, a much exhibited Boston artist, evokes a landscape of figures lost in urban twilight overcome by a jungle of foliage, fences and crumbling buildings. These almost dreams are rendered in sculptural columns, reliefs and drawings in somber tones of black and white with rapid strokes of applied colored pencil and graphite. Miriam Kay, from central Massachusetts, shows a world of fantasy and imagination in her quilts and painted pottery. Eileen Cowin, a West Coast photographer, sets up "family docu-dramas" with her husband, twin sister and children, and makes photographs of these situations both in black and white and color. Influenced by Hollywood B-movies, these large-scale snapshots show the demand of close and personal relations.

Addison Gallery hours are Tuesday-Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Sundays from 2:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. The gallery is open free to the public.

Group O Blood Donors Needed

The American Red Cross Blood Services-Northeast Region announced that the supply of group O blood has dropped below critical levels in Massachusetts, forcing it to limit its service to many hospitals. An appeal for group O blood donors, as well as new blood donors, has been issued.

The Northeast Region's inventory for group O blood—the most commonly transfused blood group—is currently at 45 percent of optimal levels. This has created a deficit of more than 2,000 units of blood. Group O blood accounts for more than 75 percent of this deficit.

"This is a particularly serious situation as group O blood occurs most frequently in the general population. Patients who are group O can receive blood only from group O donors; patients of other blood groups can receive blood of their own group as well as group O. For this reason, it is important to maintain adequate levels of group O blood. Group O blood may be vital in the treatment of major trauma victims and other emergency cases as it may be safely transfused to patients of any blood type," said Peter L. Page, M.D., director, American Red Cross Blood Services-Northeast Region.

Exhibit

Francesca Anderson Gallery, 132 Newbury St., Boston, will present recent watercolors by Ruth Cobb, November 1-28.

Gallery hours are Tuesday-Saturday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Rev. Gary Cornell, president, Andover; Anthony Torrisi, vice president, West Andover; Jeffrey Carpenter, secretary, Raymond, N.H.; Jane Parthum, assistant secretary, Lawrence; Roger Bower (Emeritus), treasurer, Andover; Robert Henderson, assistant treasurer, Andover.

New members added to the board which represents Lawrence and towns in the surrounding area are: Laura Hargadon, Helen Shadallah and Florence Taobe, all of Andover; James Landy, Gregory Panageotakis and Richard Lopez, all of Lawrence; Dorothy Hammond, North Andover.

The Family Service Association of Greater Lawrence has been able to expand its services under its new free-standing Mental Health Clinic status by a multidisciplinary approach made possible by the addition of new persons to its staff. Apple Social, Fair Scheduled At Church

The nostalgic memories of church ice cream socials attended years ago has prompted members of the Friendly Circle of the Andover Baptist Church to plan an Apple Social in connection with their Country Fair on Saturday, Nov. 3, from 12 p.m. to 4 p.m.

There will be apple desserts with ice cream and a choice of hot and cold beverages to enjoy while listening to music and visiting with friends and neighbors seated around cafe-style tables in the center of the church vestry.

The fair tables surrounding the social area will include the traditional church fair favorites with handmades for gifts, decorations, bakery, popcorn and candy, the nearly new and not so new white elephants, and used toys and books.

Jacky Gaudet and Pat Stocks, the fair's co-chairpersons, are also planning a special attraction, a photo corner where, for a nominal fee, children may be photographed on the fair's theme figure, an old fashioned rocking horse.

Another feature will be the Children's Shopping Corner for young shoppers only, no adults allowed. The Children's Corner, under the direction of Robin Abbott, will afford kids the opportunity to shop for gifts at kid-affordable prices.

Trivia Challenge Is Benefit

Hundreds of trivia enthusiasts from Massachusetts will team up with WBZ Radio to play the nation's most popular board game, Trivial Pursuit, to raise money for the Massachusetts Easter Seal Society.

The day-long Trivial Pursuit Challenge is scheduled for Friday, Nov. 16, at the Sheraton Rolling Green in Andover beginning at 6 p.m.

It is part of a nationwide effort in 80 cities throughout the country to raise $1,000,000 for Easter Seals. The event is sponsored by Selchow & Righter Company, the U.S. manufacturer of the trivia game.

Other eastern Massachusetts challenge sites include the Westin Hotel in Boston, the Worcester Marriott, Dunfey's in Hyannis and the Ridder Country Club in Whitman.

Hundreds of trivia fanatics will form teams and feverishly search for sponsorship dollars from local businesses, organizations and individuals which will qualify them for the event. Teams will play multiple rounds of Trivial Pursuit around oversized game boards until an ultimate winner is determined.

Teams which raise designated levels of sponsorship dollars will be awarded prizes from a series of exclusively designed Trivial Pursuit memorabilia such as t-shirts, books, coffee mugs, calendars and others.

The Sheraton Rolling Green will present a prize certificate for a cocktail reception and a dinner for eight for the top fundraising team. Kitchen Design

by David A. Clement, Designer

If new cabinets are to be included in your newly remodeled kitchen, there is no lack of exciting alternatives. There is a helpful rule of thumb for calculating cabinet space. It is 18 square feet for basic storage, plus an additional six square feet per occupant living in the home. If you frequently entertain, add at least another 12 square feet of shelf space. Wall units and base cabinets are available with adjustable and pull-out shelves and lazy-susan rotating shelves also available are shelves that are actually wire baskets, tray racks, platter racks, half-width spice racks and door-back racks for canned goods. The wealth of kitchen cabinet designs, materials and accessories available is exciting, vast and ingenious.

When you know your kitchen needs some changes, but you are not familiar with the modern conveniences available then it's time you came to WINDSOR KITCHENS. Here we'll show you the latest styles in cabinets. We'll examine your kitchen, determine what is important to you and then give you exactly what you want with the finest craftsmanship and quality. You'll get expert service when you see us Mon-Thurs. 9-5:30, Fri. til 8, Sat. til 2 at 1181 Boston Rd. Ward hill Tel 372-3444

Senior citizens who don't need to live in a nursing home shouldn't have to.

Senator Bob Buell is fighting for their right to stay at home.

Senator Buell knows that most senior citizens want to live at home as long as they can. That's why he favors more funding for home health care. He's fighting for property tax abatements for all citizens 70 or older, so they can live at home without getting burdened by excess taxes. And Senator Buell wants to abolish the eligibility requirements which force upon the elderly the indignity of personal income disclosure.

But for those senior citizens who need nursing home care, Senator Buell is making sure they get it. In fact, he introduced the current nursing home construction financial aid law.

And you can be sure that your State Senator will continue his fight for quality health care for the elderly.

Making plans for AFS Night at Memorial Hall Library are Dave Scheipers, left, president of North Andover AFS Chapter and Sue Wahr, president of the Andover chapter.

The American Field Service Club of Andover is hosting its first group of adult visitors from another country. The German AFS guests are staying in local homes and a busy schedule has been planned for their participation. The committee that has worked to create a fine program for their entertainment and education includes Dale Pierson, Jan Sagaser, Lee Kirkwood, Marsha Johnson, Karen Van Doren, Elaine Viehman, Ruth Berthold and Sue Wahr.

WOMEN & JOINT CUSTODY

After divorce or separation, joint legal custody means that you and your husband must consult and agree on all major decision governing your children's lives such as medical care, education and religious training. In recent years, joint legal custody has become very fashionable for separated and divorced couples because it appears to offer a way to involve both parents in their children's lives. However, joint legal custody requires you to maintain continued contact with your husband and may mean additional Court involvement in your family's life when you and your husband cannot agree. Inner City Speaker At Unitarian Church

Rev. Elizabeth Ellis-Hagler will speak on Sunday, Oct. 28, at 10:30 a.m. to the members of Andover's Unitarian Universalist Church on her work with Renewal House, a shelter and ministry with women in crisis.

The speaker obtained her theology training through the Unitarian Universalist Association Independent Study Program, during the bulk of her work at Harvard Divinity School.

She was religious education director at the 1st Parish Church of Lexington for five years and was ordained there in 1978. The following six years were spent with the Benevolent Fraternity as associate minister at-large for the poor of the city of Boston and those without a regular parish. Rev. Ellis-Hagler founded Renewal House to serve women in crisis and with her husband, Graylan, organized a small church in Roxbury, The Church of the United Community, which offers an urban theology of liberation.

In a 1983-84 annual report, she made the following observations: "The past year has seen old aspects of the ministry at large continue and develop in effectiveness and new dimensions emerge. It has been a year filled with the joyful coming together of many and with disappointment and hardship created, in part, by political and economic conditions.

"A recent story in the Boston Globe points out that the number of Americans living beneath the poverty line has increased by 40 percent since 1979. Thirty thousand people in Boston currently depend on food lines or food pantries to 'avoid starvation.' The hardest hit, according to this report and others, are poor women and their children. Add to this 0-1/2 of 1 percent housing market for low-income families, and it is clear that a ministry at large with the poor, especially poor women and children, has faced some difficult times. In spite of this the courage of such women remains an inspiration to anyone fortunate enough to be involved in ministry with them.

While searching for a location in which to establish a second-hand clothing store, Rev. Ellis-Hagler worked with women in the community to organize the Mission Hill Women's Center. A relationship has grown between the community women and the shelter program. Together they have organized women's activities such as rape seminars, women's safety programs, women's creative expressions presentations, clothing sales, poetry reading.

Ken Barnhill, co-director of the Outreach program at the Unitarian Universalist Church of Andover, urges all members, their neighbors and guests to hear "a dynamic speaker." The morning's service includes child care for children birth to four and classes for older children. Refreshments and a coffee hour follow the order of service. The church holds Sunday services at the November Club, 6 Locke St., in downtown Andover.

Christmas School At Church

Faith Lutheran Church is already gearing up for its 19th annual Christmas school which will be held December 3-7 from 9:30 a.m. to 11:15 a.m. Four and five-year-old children of all faiths are invited to learn the true meaning of Christmas.

Each morning the children are taught one aspect of the Christmas story: "Mary Hears a Secret," "Jesus is Born," "The Angels Sing," "The Shepherds Worship Jesus" and "The Wisemen Give." The children then make a craft project that reinforces the theme for the day.

The Christmas school concludes on Friday with a worship service for parents and friends where the children participate in a re-enactment of the nativity with music provided by the children in the angel choir.

To register your child, call Mrs. Ralph Pass, 14 Lavender Lane, Andover.

Deadline for registration is November 21. There is no charge for the classes, but a free will offering will be taken each day.

These young men and women have completed two years of study of the catechism and the faith and will promise to use their Baptisms as the basis for daily living and relationships.

Their friends are welcome to join them at the service. Faith Lutheran Church is on Route 28 in the south end of Andover.

To Present Neighbors In Need

Neighbors in Need Sunday will be observed at this Sunday's 10:30 a.m. Service at the Ballard Vale United Church (United Methodist Church, United Church of Christ). Sister Rejeane Keely, director of the program which provides food to many families every week in the greater Lawrence area, will be the preacher.

All the food collected this month will be dedicated and presented to Sister Rejeane as a special gift of love and commitment of the Neighbors in Need ministry.

For Those Of Us Who Are Older

By Janet D. Lake

The senior center will be closed to all activities November 5 and 6 because of Election Day and preparations for it. Staff will be present November 5, but all classes on both days have been cancelled. Also, there will be no hot lunch program on both days, although the meals-on-wheels will be delivered as usual.

An outreach worker from the Greater Lawrence Community Action Council will be at the center on Friday, Nov. 9, and Friday, Nov. 16, to take applications for fuel assistance. Appointments are required and may be made by calling the senior center. At that time prospective applicants will be told what information they must bring with them for the interview.

Charlie Holbrook of CFH Associates will present a slide program on October 30, featuring some of his recent trips, including Myron Floren at Dunphy's Warren Coyington in Newport and others. The program starts immediately following lunch at 12:45 and, of course, is free.

There is still room for you at the Halloween Party, Oct. 31. The party begins right after lunch and should be great fun. Unfortunately, because of limited space, the numbers who can be accommodated are also limited. The party is free, but you must make a reservation. October 31 at 12:45 p.m.

Have you registered for the next cheese, butter and powdered milk distribution yet? If you live in Andover and are over 60, you are eligible for this free distribution. But even if you have registered for previous distributions, you must register anew each time. Registration deadline is October 30 and distribution date is November 20. You may register by phone.

The Parson Barnard House will be open for touring.

Tickets are still available for "Mame" at Giordano's Starlight Room, November 18, all for $17, which includes dinner. There is also room on the November 28 performance of "Gigi" at the Colonial in Boston for $31 and on December 19, also at the Colonial, "Jerry's Girls," starring Carol Channing, Leslie Uggams and Andrea McArdle, for $31. Call the center for time of departure and other information.

The next in the Historical Society's programs will be presented at the center on November 7. "A Portrait Archive" will present portraits of the early settlers with biographical information. Another opportunity to learn more about Andover. The program starts at 1 p.m. and refreshments will be served.

The next mini-clinic will be at Stowe Court on November 13. The November 6 clinic normally at the center has been cancelled because the center will be closed that day. Call the health department for an appointment and information.

The $100 understanding.

Bob Buell has been on Beacon Hill for 16 years.

You may not have been aware of it.

But Billy Bulger, the Democratic Senate President, knows it.

He knows that Bob Buell voted FOR keeping things on the Hill the way they are and AGAINST rules reform, and that means keeping Bulger in power.

Bulger likes that idea so well that he recently made a $100 contribution to Bob Buell's 1984 campaign for reelection.

Bob Buell says you should reelect him, because Republicans in Massachusetts are an endangered species.

We say that with Republicans like Bob Buell in office, the Democratic leadership in Massachusetts might stay in power forever.

Bill Squillace isn't committed to keeping things the way they are.

He's committed to changing them.

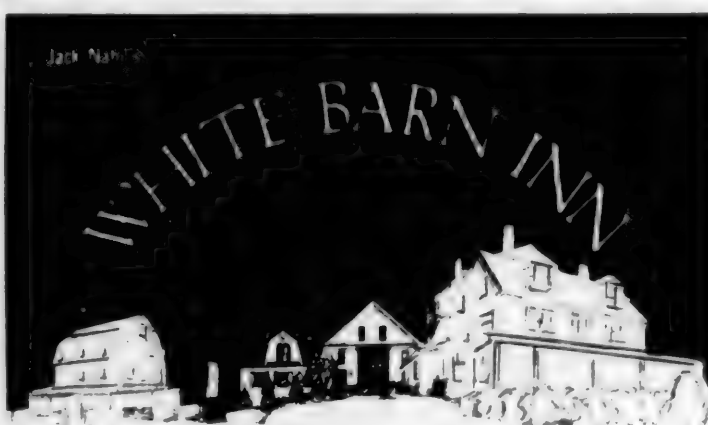

Wouldn't you like to see a few changes in the way state government is run?

Start by electing a new State Senator.

Trust Fund Activity Minimal

During their most recent review of special trust funds in the town treasury, the Committee on Town Trust Funds found more than $17,000 in unused funds available for town use, while more than $11,000 in special funds is available for the school department's use.

The Board of Selectmen last Monday night looked at a balance sheet prepared by the committee, and found it "quite interesting," as Selectmen Chairman Donn Byrne commented.

Among the findings noted by the selectmen: six trust funds designated for school use, with balances totalling $11,631 as of July 1. No funds have been drawn from these accounts recently.

The largest of these are the Draper fund, with a balance of $4,476; the Richardson fund, to be used at the Shawsheen School, at $3,254; and the Lincoln Spelling Bee Fund, at $2,085. The remaining school accounts are the Conroy ($463) and American Legion ($343) funds for high school prizes, and the Holt trust ($210) for general school use.

The selectmen said they would pass this information on to the school department.

On the town side, four accounts totalling $17,079 show no recent activity. The A.J. Lincoln Fund for needy children had a balance of $9,061 as of July 1; the J. Greeley fund for library use, $5,847; the Rafton conservation scholarship, $1,621; and the Taylor fuel fund, $550.

All of these funds are now in the town treasury, in the custody of Town Treasurer Myron H. Muise. Each has restrictions specifying how the funds may be disbursed.

Chairman Byrne said town officials are willing to consider new ideas on how these funds might be used. In past years, for instance, the fund for needy children was used for an annual children's Christmas party, he noted.

Board members indicated that the funds should be spent, not only to help townspeople who could benefit from the funds, but to honor the memory of those who bequeathed money to Andover.

The board commended the trust fund committee for its work in reviewing the current status of the funds, and voted to send a letter of commendation to the committee, which includes Muise and two advisory members, Robert A. Henderson and Andrew F. Shea.

The selectmen also voted, on a motion from Selectman William Dalton, to request an annual update on the trust fund balance sheet from the committee.

One of the better-known trust funds in Andover, the Margaret G. Towle fund for aid to the aged, handicapped and unemployed, has a principal balance of $345,825, according to the report. Balance on the income for that account was $94,848 as of July 1; from July 1, 1983 to July 1 of this year, the income account had an income of $30,217, while $39,985 was drawn from the account.

In addition to the trust funds, the committee also reviewed special funds in the town treasury, including cemetery funds, insurance, tax title escrow, the Merrimack Valley Library Consortium, and the retirement fund for town employees.

Debate On Cable TV

Andover residents with cable television will be able to see the two candidates vying for the Seventeenth Essex District seat in the Massachusetts House of Representatives face off in a recorded debate to be broadcast five times in the next week.

Andover residents Susan T. Poore, of Osgood Street, a School Committee member and Republican, is trying to unseat Democrat incumbent Susan C. Tucker, who lives on Farrwood Drive. Their 53-minute debate was taped by high school seniors at Andover High on Oct. 18.

Channel 12, Andover's educational cable television station, will carry the debate, which will be transmitted from the Rollins cable television studio at Andover High tonight at 7:30 p.m.; Saturday, Oct. 27, at 10 a.m.; Sunday, Oct. 28, at 6 p.m.; Tuesday, Oct. 30, at 5:30 p.m.; and Wednesday, Oct. 31, at 7:30 p.m.

David Casanave, a senior at Andover High, produced the debate as a class project, along with a number of other Andover High students. Casanave said the airing of the Poore-Tucker debate was the first educational show scheduled to be broadcast from the Rollins studio at the high school.

The second debate will be held Tuesday, Oct. 30, at 8 p.m. at Merrimack Library, in conjunction with the Merrimack College cable T.V. station.

This debate will be between Senator Chester Atkins, Democrat, from Concord and Gregory Hyatt, Republican, from Methuen for U.S. Senator.

The audience will have the opportunity to question the candidates on both nights.

Candidates Nights Set By League

The League of Women Voters of Andover extends an invitation to the public to two Candidates Nights.

The first debate will be held Monday, Oct. 29, at 7:30 p.m. at Memorial Hall Library in Andover.

State Senatorial candidates from the First Essex and Middlesex District, including precincts 6, 7 and 8 in Andover, will participate. The candidates are Senator Robert Buell, Republican, from Boxford and William Squillace, Democrat, from Gloucester.

State Representative candidates from the 17th Essex

District include Susan Poore, Republican, and Representative Susan Tucker, Democrat, both of Andover.

The second debate will be held Tuesday, Oct. 30, at 8 p.m. at Merrimack Library, in conjunction with the Merrimack College cable T.V. station.

Officer Cronin Rescues Man From Cold Merrimack River

By Susan Rand

Doing a job his colleagues called "over and above the call of duty" Andover police officer Robert J. Cronin risked his life to save a 31-year-old Woburn man who apparently jumped into the Merrimack River from a bridge off Route 93 South.

It was 2:52 a.m., on Sunday, when Cronin and his partner, Officer John Pathiakis, received the call over their cruiser radio that the man, Mark V. Gillis, was in the Merrimack, behind Valle's Restaurant. On the way to the river, explained Cronin, the two officers figured out the quickest route to the river bank.

"There was an old tractor path near where Shattuck Ice Cream used to be that leads to the water," said Cronin, 29. "I knew it was passable. I've fished from there before."

When they reached the water's edge the lights from their cruiser illuminated the river and Cronin and Pathiakis spotted Gillis, who by this time was clinging to what Cronin said was a small outcropping of rock attached to a bridge support.

Cronin called to Gillis to ask if he was all right, his response was that he was cold, said Cronin.

In the seconds that followed, while Cronin and Pathiakis watched from the river bank, Sgt. Arthur Ricci, who by this time had arrived on the scene, kept his flashlight on Gillis. But Gillis was losing his grip on the rock, he yelled ashore that his arms and legs were getting numb. The police officers could see the Fire Department rescue boat was nowhere in sight. Cronin said he knew the firefighters wouldn't be able to get the boat down the path he and Pathiakis had used.

So the former lifeguard at Andover's Washington Park Condominiums untrapped his gunbelt, took off his boots and quickly shed his uniform then plunged into the cold water to save the drowning Gillis.

Cronin is modest about the rescue, quickly saying that it was something any of the police officers would have done. But, just before he jumped into the Merrimack, Cronin said he knew that if Gillis lost his grip and went under water "we were never going to find him."

When he reached Gillis, in what he has since been told is water almost 40 feet deep, Cronin, recalling his lifeguard training, stayed away from Gillis for a few seconds to assess his condition. Cronin explained to the Woburn man what he was going to do and then grabbed him in a chest carry. The two went under water for a few seconds and as Cronin recalled he "got some steam up" and the two of them reached the shore.

Their body temperatures were low due to the Merrimack's cold water so both Cronin and Gillis tried to warm themselves in a heated cruiser while they waited for the ambulance that to take them to Lawrence General Hospital. Cronin was released from the hospital a few hours later.

Andover Police Chief James Johnson told THE TOWNSMAN that Cronin, who lives at 28 Corbett St., will be commended by the police department. Johnson said he will also recommend recognition of Cronin's rescue by the Board of Selectmen.

"It was a very courageous act," Johnson said. "I am very proud of him and I think the town should be too. He's a very good officer."

Those sentiments were echoed by Lt. Donald Mooers, the shift commander at the time of the incident who said, "there is no doubt that the guy went a lot further than what is expected."

Parental Concern Expressed On West Elementary Traffic

By Susan Rand

One dozen parents of West Elementary School children warned the School Committee that they were playing a game of Russian roulette by allowing youngsters to walk along High Plain Road on their way to school.

In a letter from the school's Parent-Teacher Organization (P.T.O.) the committee was asked to assign a crossing-guard near the driveway to the school to help children cross what they said was a often-travelled street where drivers tend to speed.

A number of suggestions were made by parents at Tuesday night's meeting about what the committee decided were four roadway problems near West Elementary; they are, speeding on High Plain Road, the lack of sidewalks along the road, shrubbery that obstructs a driver's view at the end of the school's driveway and traffic that uses the supposedly one-way school driveway as a short-cut.

Joy Tuman, 63 High Plain Road, told the board that she had seen a number of auto accidents and near-misses near the school adding, "I don't see how anyone could not do something if you would just stand there at the beginning of school and at the end of the day."

School Superintendent Kenneth Seifert

told the committee and audience that he would work with Town Manager Kenneth Mahoney, who was at the meeting, on the traffic problems.

"We are playing Russian roulette with some of the kids who live there," said Thomas Sharkey, 86 High Plain Road. "It is an extremely dangerous situation."

One of the problems with hiring a crossing-guard for the school, Mahoney told those at the meeting, is that Andover is already two or three crossing attendants short. He has been advertising to fill the positions, the Town Manager said, adding that crossing guards are under the direction of the Police Department, not the School Committee. Mahoney also said he would ask police officers to watch High Plain Road a bit more closely.

Mahoney offhandedly suggested that some of the speeding near the school involved teachers late for work, a comment which offended School Committee member Richard W. Neal, and with which he publically took issue, telling the town manager he didn't have facts to back up his claim.

Legal Action Causes Delay

The second-lowest bidder for the Memorial Hall Library renovation project has taken legal action to temporarily delay the $5.2 million project, but town officials hope to see work begin on the project next week.

Town Manager Kenneth Mahoney yesterday told THE TOWNSMAN that town officials have worked out an agreement with the Shawmut Bank of Boston, and will probably sign that agreement with the bank on Thursday, Nov. 1.

At that time, the bank will buy the library for $1 and hold it in trust for 15 years. The bank will oversee the construction, which is expected to take two years to complete, lease Memorial Hall to the town, and then sell the renovated library back to the town — again for $1 — 15 years from now.

Andover's monthly payments to Shawmut, and the interest rate, have not yet been set, the manager said. He noted that interest rates have been dropping in recent weeks, and that town officials are optimistic about obtaining a favorable rate when they sign the trust agreement.

Andover signed a construction contract with Trust Construction Corp. of Dracut early this month, and the contractor had been expected to raze the Essex Street theatre building by mid-month, as the first stage of the renovation and expansion project.

Demolition has yet to begin, however, because the second-lowest bidder for the project, Anchor Construction of Lowell, has obtained a temporary injunction to halt the project, Mahoney explained. The manager said he expected Anchor's suit to be resolved by the end of this week.

Last month, Anchor Construction charged that Trust, the low bidder at $3.69 million, failed to fully comply with bidding regulations. Anchor, which had bid $3.84 million, took that charge to the Labor and Industrial Board — which found that Trust Construction had in fact complied with bidding regulations.

A Proper Direction

Andover's Planning Board has made a proper move in addressing the problem of downtown parking.

The special subcommittee working on the Central Business District has come up with some suggested changes with regard to the parking problems and how to provide additional space, when and if expansion of the area takes place.

The entire board will take up the matter at its meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 13, which provides for public input on the matter in sufficient time for all to become familiar with the proposals prior to town meeting action in the spring.

The time element has been an important factor in the defeat of articles at the last two town meetings. The proposals were introduced and given public hearings in a time frame which did not allow for adequate discussion or providing for alternatives. The result, of course, was defeat of the items, even though some portions had merit.

Among the features of the new proposal are the options made available to new businesses or to current occupants planning expansion, to meet the town's existing parking regulations.

A business can either provide parking on their own or obtain parking credits through purchase, providing the town with funds for parking lot maintenance and acquisition. Also, the planning board could issue a special permit to reduce the number of spaces required for the particular type of operations.

All of this is a step in the right direction in moving toward a resolve of the town's parking problems.

There are parking problems in downtown Andover and they have been present for some time.

There have been suggested resolves, but the hard fact remains that the townspeople will not subsidize parking for the downtown area. Proposals have fallen on deaf ears in the past, and even with state funds available, development of a parking garage or expanded parking facilities has either been rejected or altered substantially by town meeting voters.

It therefore seems obvious that the town must work within the confines of what is available in the downtown area and the fringe sections, where so-called satellite parking facilities might become available.

Current parking regulations tend to hinder new development, while favoring the business operations which have been in operation for a while. Some Andover businesses have expanded only because they fell under a so-called grandfather clause which allowed them to bypass newer and more stringent parking regulations designed to protect the town, the merchant and the customer.

New, updated regulations, the result of considerable work by planners and members of the community, now are very much a distinct possibility for presentation and passage at the next annual town meeting.

The planning board has put the parking problem on a proper course for equitable resolve. Now, it is up to the townspeople to cooperate by providing them with adequate input at public meetings on the subject scheduled to begin, Tuesday, Nov. 13.

Down The Years With The Townsman

75 Years Ago — October 1909

Paul Simeone, the local fruit dealer, has moved into the new house on High Street recently built by William J. Doherty.

Andover was greatly honored by having the governor as a guest in town over Monday night. His Excellency, after visiting the rallies at Lawrence and Haverhill returned to the home of William M. Wood, where he passed the night.

One of the most pernicious forms that the present day lottery has taken to itself is that of the Suit Club. Andover has just passed through an experience with one of the clubs through which a goodly quota of her citizens have had a pretty severe squeezing and while it isn't very likely that it will get a start again, it is just as well to make a protest against it and help along the general movement which is noted in so many newspapers of opposition and agitation against the Suit Club.

50 Years Ago — October 1934

The American Woolen Co. is again the town's highest taxpayer, figures obtained this week reveal. The Woolen company pays $70,077.46 this year, as compared with $59,897.42 last year. The Lawrence Gas and Electric Co. is again second, with $28,501.94 as compared with $23,377.81 last year. Andover-Shawsheen Realty again comes third, although its bill has reduced slightly because of numerous sales the past year. This year's bill is $22,068.95, and last year's, $22,129.69.

A concern reputed to employ about 300 persons is now conducting negotiations with a view of leasing the old Smith and Dove factory. The name and business of the firm are being withheld, so that boards of trade in other towns will not have an opportunity to solicit the company. It is said that this is the most hopeful looking prospect since the old factory closed up.

To those interested in following intelligently the events in this changing world it will be welcome news that the November Club is to sponsor a course of four lectures by Mrs. Frank Mansfield-Taylor. Mrs. Taylor has the essential qualities of a good lecturer: personality, exploring mind, ability to interpret facts and an extensive fund of information. All this is combined with a gift of vivid expression and a pleasing voice.

25 Years Ago — October 1959

The Planning Board and Selectmen will sit down to discuss drainage policy Nov. 2, concentrating on whether the town can, or should, insist on developers bearing the expense of improving town-owned drainage facilities. The broad question of responsibility for improvements to existing town utilities, when they are taxed by new homes, was raised by Selectman William Stewart. Of particular importance, said Stewart, is the drainage situation at Wild Rose Farm, complicated by other developments in the area.

York st. residents north of Haverhill st. have petitioned the Selectmen for 24-hour police protection by foot patrolmen, following last week's fatal accident on the street. Twenty-six signatures appeared on the petition accompanying a letter stating the residents' belief that the capacity of the thoroughfare to handle traffic has been badly exceeded by the influx of cars to the Raytheon plant.

The Police Department has three reports of stolen pumpkins, according to Sgt. William R. Hickey. And in all three cases, he said, the persons reporting the thefts have been warned that the cruisers are unlikely to spot such a theft unless it takes place at just the moment the car goes past the house. Many homeowners traditionally leave the pumpkins on the front steps during the annual Halloween season.

10 Years Ago — October 1974

Regina Park was honored during half-time ceremonies at last Saturday's Andover-Methuen football game as Homecoming Queen. Miss Park was selected for the honor by the Andover High student body. She reigned over the weekend homecoming ceremonies at the school.

An Andover parent Tuesday night expounded on the virtues of standardized tests as a means of determining accountability and evaluation of teachers, and accused the administration of "negativism" toward accountability, particularly in regard to standardized tests. Ralph Wilbur was then followed to the stage by another parent, Dr. Frederic A. Wallace, who said Wilbur's lengthy, 35-minute report was "not constructive." The exchange came mid-way through Tuesday night's three-hour discussion on evaluation, and the committee never got beyond that first item on the agenda.

The first step in the procedure of filling the school board vacancy created by the resignation of John Wragg, will get underway next Tuesday night at West Elementary School auditorium. The remaining four members of the school committee will meet with the selectmen at that time to organize in joint session for the election of a person to fill the position until the March election. It is expected that for the first time since the election last March, the school board majority will have its power diminished.

Not Just Another Rubber Stamp

Our State is full of 'rubber stamps.'

'Rubber stamps' are politicians who consistently approve whatever the House Leadership wants them to, because they're afraid to do otherwise. They're also the ones who give in to powerful special interest groups.

They're the reason we pay outrageous taxes and live in fear because our laws aren't tough enough to keep dangerous criminals off the streets.

It's time we elected a state representative who isn't afraid to take on the House Leadership when they're wrong, and to stand up for the wishes of the people she serves.

That person is Susan Poore. She's proven it in the years she's been a town selectman and a member of the school committee.

Don't send another 'rubber stamp' to the State House. Send someone who will make a difference.

Positive Attitude Advocated

Seven Andover High School students told the School Committee they wanted to increase school spirit and create a positive attitude among their peers at Tuesday's school board meeting.

Led by Andover High Student Advisory Council President Betsy Murphy, the students presented a list of goals and objectives to the committee.

"There is a lack of communication and positive attitude," at the school said Murphy of Andover High. "We want to increase school spirit, which piques in the fall at homecoming."

The students were commended by School Committee members Donald W. Robb, chairman; Richard W. Neal, Michael F. Giammusso and Susan T. Poore. Robert F. Smith was absent from Tuesday's meeting. Robb invited the students to attend other committee meetings, especially those where topics concerning the High School were on the agenda.

"Don't be afraid to challenge us," Neal said to the students. "You're there every day and you know what's happening."

Besides Murphy, the other Andover High students attending the meeting were Christopher Abell, Deana Bardetti, Richard Napolitano, Ron Rosenberg, Ted Anderson and Tracy Lasch, all members of the Student Council's Advisory Council. They were elected by the student body in an election last May.

The next scheduled School Committee meetings are on Tuesday, Nov. 6 and Tuesday, Nov. 20, at 7:30 p.m., in the second floor meeting room in the school administration building, off Whittier Street.

But fewer than a dozen of those sites could actually sustain a multi-family development, Jeton said; the rest have problems that make them "not developable" — large wetlands areas, for example.

Among the parcels that have been mapped, Jeton said, two of the largest stand out as the most likely sites for potential multi-family housing: the Wood estate off North Main Street, which still belongs to the Wood family; and the Andover Country Club area off Lowell, Canterbury and Beacon streets and Chandler Circle, which is now under development as a single-family subdivision.

Anchor then obtained its temporary injunction to delay the project, according to Mahony.

As soon as the bidding dispute is settled, the theatre building will be torn down, Mahony indicated, perhaps as soon as next Monday. All utilities have been shut off and the Fire Department has inspected the old building, he said.

The demolition will make room for a new addition that will almost double the size of the existing library, as well as a new parking lot.

Ballet

The Boston Ballet will present a "Balanchine Celebration," a program of four ballets featuring the choreography of the late George Balanchine, November 7-11 at the Wang Center for the Performing Arts. The program includes the Boston Ballet premiere of "Capriccio for Piano and Orchestra" from the full-length ballet "Jewels," "Prodigal Son," "Scotch Symphony" and Tchaikovsky Pas de Deux."

The ANDOVER TOWNSMAN CLASSIFIEDS SELL AS EASY AS PIE.

Christmas is coming, and goodness knows we all need a little extra money during the holidays. So I sell my unused and unwanted items in classified. Santa and I cleaned out our attic and found lots of things we don't need anymore. With classified, we can find a buyer for the things we want to sell, and I always use it to shop for gifts. It's a great way to find my Santa a special gift. My goodness, it just makes sense to use classified for all your buying and selling.

Volleyball Team Wins

The Andover High Girl's volleyball team topped Methuen Friday, two straight sets out of three, on home court, bringing the Warrior record to 6-6 with three games remaining - -Billerica, Chelmsford and Lowell. Maybe it was the plastic effigy hung by some devil-may-care Tewksbury players that the Warriors found swinging on their goalpost in Lovely Stadium which motivated them to blast away the leading team in the M.V.C. Small School Division last week, a team who had only one close loss and that to Andover earlier in the season. The truth will never be known but leading 1-0 at the half, the Warriors went on to win a decisive 5-0 victory over spirited Tewksbury.

On Friday they overwhelmed a Lawrence contingent who forfeited their scheduled game earlier in the season due to lack of players, 9-0.

The victory over Lawrence cinched the Warriors' participation in state tournament competition. This will be the fifth straight year Andover has made an attempt to capture the coveted state crown.

Andover 5 - Tewksbury 0

About midway in the first half leading scorer David Keene put Andover ahead 1-0 when he received an excellent cross from Paul Hevehan and booted it into the net as the keeper dove sideways in an unsuccessful attempt to block it.

Ten minutes later Tewksbury penetrated the defense and made a perfect shot on net which keeper David Bartle immediately pushed up and over the crossbar to maintain the Warriors' advantage.

The half ended with Andover leading 1-0.

Tewksbury pressed early in the second half, which ultimately won them a penalty kick which barely missed going in under the crossbar.

Within minutes they attacked the Andover end again and made back-to-back shots, one of which went wide of the net and the other, after a scramble, was cleared by a defender.

The Warriors upped their lead to 2-0 when Co-Captain Jeff Kennedy scored. Hevehan sent the ball in front of the crowded net on a throw-in. The Tewksbury defenders tried to kick it out and, when it landed in front of Kennedy, he tapped it into the net.

Chris Sapuppo increased the Warriors' advantage when he found the range. A Tewksbury player fought Keene for possession of the ball all the way down the right side almost to the end line; Keene retained possession and made a great cross in front of the net to Sapuppo who blasted the ball into the left side of the net.

Scott Wilkins made it 4-0 when he scored following a long throw-in by Nick Bates.

With about five minutes left in the game, Tewksbury was awarded another direct kick just outside the penalty area, which they did not convert.

Two minutes later, their pressure earned them their third direct kick, with the same result.

With time running out, Keene completed Andover's scoring when he broke away after he received a long pass from Mike Hardock, beat the keeper who had come out much too far, and shot the ball into the empty net.

David Bartle earned the shutout, turning back 10 shots. Andover made 20 shots on the Tewksbury net during the course of the game.

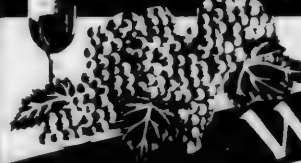

Defenders Bruce Crawford and Scott Brink stood out in the field, as did Wilkins and Hardock.

Coach Dave Amundsen was dejected following the team's loss to Billerica, at home, about ten days ago because of what he considered "a disappointing showing" by his team. He felt that while the Warriors played very well in the first half, "they let down in the second and as a result, Billerica became stronger and stronger and played with more intensity which resulted in the end in three goals, more than enough for the win." Amundsen felt his team "did not measure up that day."

He still feels the Warriors "have a chance to defeat Billerica next Wednesday in the last game of the season and that may be for all the marbles in the league."

Warriors Defeated

Warriors Fall To Lawrence, 28-3

By Rick Harrison

After dominating the first half everywhere but on the scoreboard, the Andover High football team surrendered 22 second-half points en route to a 28-3 setback against Lawrence last weekend at Veterans Stadium.

The first two quarters were played almost entirely in Lancers' territory, with the Golden Warriors running off an incredible 43 plays to just 15 for Lawrence. But all the AHS ball-control offense could salvage was a 27-yard Craig Hammond fieldgoal late in the half, as the Lancers' defense stiffened to stop three other serious Andover threats at the 16, 17 and 34 yard lines.

Offensively the high points were strong running by sophomore Steve Redgate, junior quarterback Tim Perry's fourth 100-yard passing day (12-for-29, 129 yards), and the excellent work of receivers Doug Clements (three catches for 56 yards), Shane Smith, Keith Driscoll and Brian Finnerty.

The Golden Warriors' defense, after holding Lawrence to 73 first-half yards, allowed 239 yards in the final two quarters as the Lancers' running game took control.

Once again sophomore outside linebacker Rich Bourdelais was outstanding, recovering two LHS fumbles and roaming the field to participate in 16 tackles.

Things certainly won't get any easier this Saturday, as the Golden Warriors return home to host Chelmsford at Lovely Field (1:30 p.m.).

Coach Tom Caito's Lions are 4-2-0 overall, and fresh off a 13-0 shutout win over previously-undefeated Wilmington.

The loss to Lawrence leaves Andover at 2-4-0, and following the Chelmsford contest Andover will wrap up the season with games against unbeaten Methuen, Tewksbury and traditional Thanksgiving Day rival Central Catholic.

Coming Up Short

Coach Dick Collins' squad opened the Lawrence game by eating up the first seven minutes on a march from its own 16 yard line to the Lancers' 17.

The 16-play, 67-yard drive was highlighted by Steve Redgate runs of 20 and 12 yards, a 13-yard Perry-to-Redgate pass and a pair of passes to Brian Finnerty for 10 and six-yard gains.

Redgate's 20-yard burst gave Andover a first down at the Lawrence 19, but then rushes by Redgate and Finnerty gained just one yard each.

On third down Perry lofted a pass intended for Eric Deloury in the endzone, but at the last second junior defensive back Bill Buckley dove to tip the ball away.

Craig Hammond attempted a 35-yard fieldgoal that was short and off to the right.

Bourdelais' first fumble recovery came on the last play of the opening period, the sophomore punting on the ball at the Lancers' 39 after a 26-yard run by Jeff Speller.

Speller would later come back to haunt the Golden Warriors, finishing the contest with 131 yards rushing (16 carries) and two touchdowns.

Warriors

Perry quickly clicked off four yards, and then fired a bomb to Clements that was broken up at the Lawrence 10.

On fourth-and-4 from the 34 Pete Lundy fell on an AHS fumble, but three plays later Bourdelais returned the favor with his second recovery at the Andover 40.

The Golden Warriors wasted little time moving to the LHS 21, Perry hitting tight end Keith Driscoll with a nine-yard toss and then lofting a 28-yard pass to Clements who outmaneuvered Buckley for the catch.

Once again the offense stalled, but on third down Andover received a break when a Dave Walworth pass interception was erased by a roughing-the-passer penalty.

Perry advanced the ball four yards to the 10, but passes to Finnerty and recently returned wide receiver Kevin Rourke fell incomplete at the goal line.

Hammond then toed the 27-yard fieldgoal, his second three-pointer of the season, as AHS inched ahead 3-0 with four minutes left in the half.

The Lancers bounced right back for their first touchdown, however, marching 34 yards in six plays after Buckley returned Bourdelais' kickoff 57 yards from the Lawrence nine to the Warriors' 34.

The key play was a 27-yard pass from QB Mike Clifton to Buckley, who made the grab at the AHS three as he was being wrapped up by Co-Capt. Brian McAnally.

Shane Smith saved the TD on the next play by tripping up Ken Covey at the two, but then the 6-3, 210-pound Clifton bulled up the middle for the score.

McAnally broke through to block Bill Cardillo's attempted conversion kick, keeping the Lancers' edge at 6-3.

The teams had enough time to trade possessions over the final 1:11, Brian Finnerty intercepting a Clifton pass at the Andover 43 and returning it to the Lawrence 30 with 23 seconds left in the half.

A clipping penalty pushed the ball back to the 45, but Perry hit Doug Clements for 10 yards and a pass interference call against the Lancers (Walworth climbing up Clements' back at the nine yard line) advanced the ball to the 20.

Perry found Shane Smith for a three-yard gain, but the final play of the half saw the AHS signal-caller roll to his left and miss connections on a pass intended for Redgate in the endzone.

Rolling Along

Lawrence wasted little time taking charge in the second half, an attempted squib kickoff by Andover going awry and giving the Lancers excellent field position at the AHS 48.

Runs by Speller, Ken Covey and Clifton moved the ball steadily to the Golden Warriors' one. An illegal procedure penalty stalled Lawrence momentarily, but two plays later Speller knifed across from the three for the TD.

Clifton rushed the two-point conversion for a 14-3 Lawrence lead.

Andover came up inches shy of a first down on its next possession, and Lawrence put the ball in play at midfield following Perry's punt.

A holding penalty (LHS had nine penalties totalling 95 yards) pushed the Lancers back to their own 43, setting up a trick play that produced the third touchdown.

Clifton dropped back to pass and swung an overhand lateral to Bill Cardillo near the left sideline. The Andover secondary, reading run on the play, got sucked up while the Lancers' Bill Buckley ran a straight-line pattern towards the endzone. Cardillo lofted a perfect strike to Buckley, who made the catch in stride with a 10-yard lead on his nearest pursuer.

Buckley cruised the final 15 yards to paydirt, and when Speller rushed the points Lawrence owned a commanding 22-3 advantage with 1:56 left in the third quarter.

Clements pulled down an 18-yard pass on the first play after the kickoff, but again the Andover attack sputtered and Perry was forced to punt.

The final Lawrence TD came on a 10-play, 87-yard drive following the punt, Speller carrying seven times for 67 yards and Clifton twice for 15.

Speller bucked over from the one for his second touchdown of the contest, capping the LHS offense at the 4-minute mark of the fourth stanza.

Late in the game Eric Shenker made Andover's third fumble recovery at the Warriors' 43, and a 23-yard pass to Driscoll brought AHS to the host team's 23 in the final minute.

Sophomore Joe McColley ended the last threat on the last play of the game, stepping in front of Doug Clements at the five yard line to intercept a Perry toss.

Statistics

The two teams finished with 13 first downs apiece, while Andover had the edge in yards passing (129-84) and scrimmage plays (66-46).

Lawrence led in yards rushing (228-87) and total yardage from scrimmage (312-216).

Redgate led the Andover ground game with 43 yards in 10 carries, while Perry added 36 yards in 11 carries.

Shane Smith and Doug Clements caught three passes each, Keith Driscoll and Brian Finnerty two apiece, Steve Redgate one and John Swenson one.

Perry punted five times for a 36.2 average.

There were 155 yards in penalties, the Golden Warriors hit with seven for 60 yards.

Hammond now leads the team in scoring with 15 points. Clements, Redgate and Perry have 12 points each while Smith, Kevin Rourke and Chris Madden have six points apiece.

Jones Named Bentley Captain

The Celtics won't be the only Boston-area basketball team having a member of the Jones' family providing leadership this winter.

Kip Jones, son of Celtics' head coach K.C. Jones, will serve as captain of this year's varsity basketball team at Bentley College.

The Falcons, 18-9 in each of the last two years, began drill for the upcoming season on October 15. Their first game under the direction of rookie coach Frank Sullivan is November 26 against cross-town rival Brandeis.

Jones, a 6'5" senior forward, heads the list of ten returning letter-winners Sullivan inherited from former coach Brian Hammel, who left to become an assistant at the University of Iowa.

Jones, who now resides in Wellesley, has improved greatly in each of his three collegiate seasons.

Since his rookie season, he has increased his scoring average from 1.8 to 10.9, his rebound average from 2.6 to 6.3, his field goal percentage from .372 to .627 and his free throw accuracy from .571 to .803.

Last season the Andover High School product was ranked nationally in field goal shooting for much of the season, although he had 14 too few field goals to be listed in the final NCAA statistics. A second-team All-Northeast-8 Conference honoree, Jones also excels defensively (45 steals last season).

His top game statistically last year came against New Hampshire College when he scored 24 points (on 10-of-11 shooting), grabbed 7 rebounds, had 5 assists and made 4 steals.

Gary Aramini presented a check to the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute at a reception in his honor on Thursday, Oct. 18, in the amount of $173,552.75, the crowning achievement of his 3,000-mile cross-country run from San Francisco to Hampton Beach, N.H., this past summer.

Aramini of Chester, N.H., was an inexperienced runner who trained for a year in order to take on the challenge which he hoped would raise $100,000 for Dana-Farber and memorialize his friend, Billy Clay, a former patient at the institute who died of cancer in 1983.

The money will be used to establish the Billy Clay/Gary Aramini Endowment Fund for Cancer Research at Dana-Farber.

Andover Cobras Compete In Virginia

By She Livermore

The Cobras, the Under 12 Girls team who represented Massachusetts in the Eastern United States Regional championships in Niagara Falls in the summer (through the generosity of numerous Andover individuals and businesses), headed for Virginia over Columbus Day weekend to compete in the 10th Annual Washington Area Girls Soccer Tournament (W.A.G.S.). They were invited by the team from Virginia who defeated them in Niagara Falls.

The tournament attracted 224 teams representing various age groups and many towns throughout the country. The division in which the Cobras competed attracted 20 teams, two of them from Massachusetts, Wellesly and Andover. Andover was ranked 18th and Wellesley 19th at the start of the tournament. The teams were split into five groups, the Cobras being included with the C group. Ultimately, both Andover and Wellesley finished higher in the rankings by virtue of winning two points apiece; at least six other teams received lower rankings at the conclusion of the tournament.

Only 13 Cobra players travelled to Virginia, leaving the team with only two substitutes. Their first game was with the Reston Knighthawks, a Virginia contingent. Three minutes into the contest, Reston scored. Four minutes later they upped their score 2-0. Towards the end of the half, the Cobras lost their center forward, Elizabeth Shea, to an ankle injury. The Cobras denied the competition any further opportunities to increase their advantage in the second half and worked hard to get the ball into the Reston net, without success. They never gave up and, with seconds to go, made two additional attempts to score, but the ball went wide in one instance and over the crossbar in the other, giving the victory to Reston. BOG: Suzanne Giannelly, Elizabeth Shea and Erin Lynch.

In their second game, the Cobras competed against the Vienna Express, another Virginia entry. Goalkeeper Nicole Ricci was the heroine as her many outstanding saves preserved an ultimate 0-0 tie with each team earning a point apiece. The competition were awarded two penalty shots. The ball went high over the crossbar on their first shot. Late in the second half, Ricci barely missed blocking the second shot on her left side, however, the goal was denied because the Vienna players jumped into the penalty area. On their second attempt, Ricci dove to the left and stopped a perfect shot from entering the net. On another occasion a Vienna shot hit the crossbar and bounced straight down behind Ricci; she carefully kept her balance and the ball out of the net. BOG: Ricci, Elizabeth Hanson and Michelle Vetrano.

The Cobra's final game was against the Scarborough Buccaneers, from Ontario, Canada. The Cobras attacked the Scarborough end on a number of occasions in the first half but could not capitalize on their scoring opportunities. Gianelly scored Andover's only goal of the tournament early in the second half. Cate Doherty passed the ball forward to Erin Lynch who dribbled it and then made a great pass to Gianelly who beat the keeper and blasted it into the net. With seven minutes left to go in the tight contest, Scarborough penetrated the defense and made a high shot over Ricci's outstretched arms, to make the final outcome a 1-1 tie. BOWG: Jodi Saunders, Bridget Murphy and Elizabeth Hanson.

Members of the Andover Cobras who participated in the W.A.G.'s tournament were Brenna Cronin, Cate Doherty, Andrea Duffy, Suzanne Gianelly, Elizabeth Hanson, Erin Lynch, Bridget Murphy, Nicole Ricci, Jodi Saunders, Elizabeth Shea, Megan Sheehan, Kara Slavin and Michelle Vetrano.

Andover Pee Wees Lose

By Ed Owens

The Boston Bruins were not in town this weekend but a good alternative was played at Skate Three in Tyngsboro Saturday afternoon when Andover faced off against a strong Westford team.

Westford jumped to a 1-0 lead in the first period on a centering pass from behind the net to an uncovered player who was just able to squeak the puck under Mike Daley's right pad. Play continued in the Andover end most of the period but Daley was even to the task, holding Westford at bay with many spectacular saves.

The second period was a carbon copy of the first with one exception. Andover seemed to come to life offensively and the flow seemed to shift in their favor but the Westford goalie showed some of his goaltending skills and thwarted Andover late in the stanza.

Period three saw some very exciting hockey and it was evident to everybody present that Andover's momentum was mounting and also evident was Chris Cashman's play on defense down the stretch. Halfway through the period Mike Restuccia used the Westford defense to screen his rocket from about 30 feet which the Westford goalie could not catch up to Westford closed out the scoring with a goal late in the game for a final 3-1 Westford win.

Andover Junior Football

Last Sunday's Junior Football League action saw the improving Central Colts play the West Andover Redskins to a 6-6 tie.

The Colts got on the scoreboard first when quarterback Bill Batchelder fired a strike to end Brian Donellan who raced untouched into the endzone. The play covered 25 yards. The try for the extra point was good by Keith Abernathy on a sweep left, but was nullified by a penalty. The Redskins' defense stopped the Colts cold on their second attempt.

In the third quarter Redskin E.J. Hayes gathered in a Colt punt and, behind a key block from Tim Parker, returned it 40 yard to tie the score. The Colt defense denied the Redskins the extra point.

Andy Peck turned in another fine two-way effort for the Redskins. Jason Blandini made a couple of catches from his end position. Hayes played well in his first start at quarterback and Adam Runa had some nice runs behind the blocking of Dan Moynihan and Sean Veasy. The Redskins' defense was led by linemen Mark Avery, Joe Licata and Mark Maesand while linebackers Scott Buchanan, Ryan Kelley and Ian Timmons made more than their share of tackles.

Kyle Murphy, Peter Reming, Dan Waitkevitch, "Duke" McNamara, Brian Novelline, Justin Lattanzio, John Zembruski, Chad Galster, Sean Baldwin and Jarrod Martelucci led the Colt offense. Jeff Manning, Brian Witkowski and Matt Grant had superb performances defensively.

In the second game of the day, the Indian Ridge Raiders avenged their only loss of the season by handing the previously unbeaten and unscored upon Bancroft Dolphins their first loss of the season 18-6. The Raiders are now tied for first place with the Dolphins with identical 4-1 records.

The first Raider touchdown was scored by halfback Kevin Foley on a 36-yard scamper. He was sprung loose by great blocks from Pete Radulski and Matt Perry. Bob Lowry registered the second touchdown on the receiving end of a 62-yard pass from quarterback Joe Iarrobino on the last play of the first half. Raider halfback Tom DeBenedictis scored their third touchdown when he broke through the line on an off-tackle play, cut to the outside and outraced the Dolphin secondary for a 48-yard touchdown run.

The Raiders offense was keyed by the play of linemen David Blank, Dennis Grogan, Jon Wilen and Kevin Murphy and backs Jeff Foley and Kirk McConville. On defense tackle Chris Landers had six unassisted tackles and linebacker Paul Mondello and safety Matt Perry made some hard hits. Glenn Driscoll, Will Lowry, Jon J'Neil, Steve Flagg, Jeff Conley and Will Dunning also made their presence felt on defense.

The Dolphins' lone score was by Adam Galvin on a five-yard burst over the left side. Ames Prentiss, Steve Caltigione, Chad Livingston and Curt Solomon played well on offense and Rob Benedetto, Sean Finneran, Brian Duffy and Jason McCue had excellent defensive efforts.

The two greatest stimulants in the world are youth and debt.

Care Of Asters

One of the most beautiful flowers is the aster, or star flower, a member of the daisy family. Aster means "variety" and there are more than 500 species of it found in the Americas, Europe, Asia and South Africa. Asters should be given a long drink of water before they are arranged in a container. Firs, loosen and separate the stems to permit good air circulation.

One or two inches should be cut off the end of the stems and any leaves that would be under water should be removed.

The water should be lukewarm and treated with a floral preservative. It's a powder that dissolves in the water.

Replenish the preservative solution every day or two and remove aging flowers so the others aren't affected.

On The Soccer Fields

By She Livermore
and Margaret Cronin

With only a few games left in the league schedule, the players and spectators alike hope that Mother Nature continues to cooperate in the manner of last weekend when approximately 1,500 Andover youth took to the soccer fields under unseasonably warm and sunny skies. Brief results of all the games appear below:

Under 14/16 Division

Rogues 5 - Rowdies 3

Gary Ziegler put the Rogues ahead in the first quarter on a long shot. David Carnes did the same for the Rowdies to make it a tie. The Rogues went ahead 3-1 in the second quarter with tallies by Mike Faraci and Dave Wager, both following great corner kicks by Ziegler. Matt Kelly and David Lewis (assist Carnes and Kelly) kicked in two in the third quarter to tie it again. At this point, keeper Ziegler was pulled from the net and immediately took a very long direct kick up to Wager who shot it into the net, startling the Rowdies. Mike LeBreck upped the lead and the Rogues won the hard-fought victory. BOW: Lance Gomes, Jonathon Clough and Joshua Fluhr (Rogues) and James McKay, Eric Friese, Mike Duffy and Bill Flynn (Rowdies).

Rascals 3 - Roughnecks 1

The first quarter was scoreless, but the Rascals went ahead 2-0 in the second when John Mattola beat the keeper twice, one on a pass from Mike Schwartz and the other from Stephen Buscema. The Roughnecks pressed in the third quarter and narrowed the edge when they tallied, however, Mattola kicked in a hat trick in the finale and the Rascals won 3-1. BOW: Eric Stapfer, Mark Leinson and Michael Smith (Rascals).

Andover Attackers 6 - Lowell 2

The Attackers lived up to their name in the first half, dominating throughout and kicking in five goals to take a commanding lead. Lowell responded in the second half and narrowed the edge when they kicked in two tallies. Towards the end of the contest Greg Kinsky assaulted the net and the Attackers won 6-2. Scoring in the first-half blitz were David Rehe with a hat trick, Scott Friese and Henning Ohlenbusch (Kinsky assisted on the latter). BOW: Brian Worcester, Raj Sheel and David Penney.

Andover Raiders 3 - Beverly 2

Beverly scored a questionable goal in a breakaway early in the contest. Jamie Spinelli evened it up in the third quarter when he received a fine pass from Chris Eggert, beat the keeper and blasted it into the net. Matt Pothier made it 2-1 when he took the ball from midfield and scored and Scott Clementi upped the Raiders' lead towards the end of the quarter when he scored on a pass from Brad Rehitto. The Raiders kept up the pressure in the finale but were unable to capitalize and when a Beverly forward broke away again, he minimized his team's loss to 3-2. BOW: Dave Miles, Mark Angelos and Scott Lanouette.

Bluejays 0 - Orioles 0

The game between the Bluejays and the Orioles turned into a keeper's dual as both goalies, Debbie Donovan and Meg McConville for the Bluejays and Heather Ryan for the Orioles, repeatedly blocked the many shots on their nets throughout the scrappy contest. As a result the game ended in a hard-fought 0-0 tie. BOW: Apart from the goalkeepers of both teams, Anne Pease, Andrea Dennett, Suzanne Kramer and Heather Galvin (Bluejays) and Sarah Little (Orioles).

Cardinals 2 - Robins 1

Pamela Boucher put the Cardinals in the lead when she scored early in the first half, with assists going to Robin Crooks and Rosemary Torrisi. The Robins evened things up in the second half when Wendy Souter found the range on a pass from Katie Pakos. Karyn Bates made it 2-1 for the Cardinals when she scored on a pass from Lisa Fox. With time running out, the Robins, in probably their finest effort so far, made numerous shots on the goal looking for the equalizer; keeper Cara Workman, however, blocked everything they shot at her to preserve the hard-fought victory for the Cardinals. BOW: Teresa Babine, Anne Comestock and Brenda Brewer (Cardinals) and Maureen Murphy and Paulette Beeber (Robins).

Andover Blazers 3 - Billerica 1

Kim Heseltine put the Blazers ahead when she scored on a corner kick early in the first half. She upped the lead when she beat the keeper in the second half, with the assist going to Sharon Petzold. With time running out, Petzold found the range herself on a pass from Tanya Kachen to win 3-1. (Billerica denied the shutout midway through the contest). BOW: Karen DelSarto and Micaela Corkery.

out a 1-1 tie with a North Andover contingent who resisted the Striker's many attempts to up their score throughout the contest. North Andover went ahead early in the game but Nancy Abramson evened it up when she made a perfect shot on net on a pass from Emily Trespas. BOW: Kerry Fitzpatrick, Jodi Jangro and Stephanie Kuo.

Andover Cobras 6 - Burlington 1

Andover Cobras 1 - Chelmsford 1

The Cobras opened the scoring in the first half by kicking in two goals (Wendy Germain and Megan Sheehan; Susan Goldstein, Bridget Murphy and Suzanne Gianelly earned the assists). The competition narrowed the edge when they scored towards the end of the half. The Cobras kept the ball in the Burlington end during the rest of the contest and added four more goals to win a decisive 6-1 victory. Scoring the second-half tallies were Laura Hebeison, Erin Lynch (2) and Gianelly; Goldstein, Jodi Saunders (2), Megan Sheehan, Lynch and Dee Dee Sullivan assisted. BOW: Elizabeth Hanson, Leslie Wilkinson and Sullivan.

The Cobras found undefeated Chelmsford, the leading team in the division, much tougher than Burlington and the name of the game was tight defense, although they did make some good attempts to score, particularly in the first half, without success. Keeper Nicole Ricci rejected numerous shots on her net throughout the contest, but ultimately Chelmsford were able to score what proved to be the game winner. A Chelmsford forward made a great shot which Ricci punched out after making a sliding tackle; another player kicked in the rebound. BOW: Apart from Ricci, the entire team for a great effort.

Andover Lightning 1 - Billerica 1

Andover Lightning 2 - Chelmsford 0

The first half was scoreless with the Lightning's many shots either going wide, high over the net or blocked by the Billerica keeper. Early in the second half they took the lead when Peter Arthur made a perfect shot on a pass from Ryan Beal which went in the net over the keeper's outstretched hands. With one minute left in the game, Billerica scored on a direct kick, to make it a hard-fought 1-1 tie. BOW: Michael Hagerty, Eddie McKertich and Peter Dennett.

Mike Henry put the Lightning ahead in the first half of the game with Chelmsford when he beat the keeper on a pass from Duncan Harris. The Lightning continued to press and, when Colin Nix found the range midway through the second-half, with Harris again providing the assist, they won a 2-0 victory. BOW: Jamie Damon, Mike Costello and Steven Sintros.

Andover Cyclones 1 - Burlington 1

Burlington took the lead when they penetrated the defense in the first half. The Cyclones fought back in the second, kept the ball in the Burlington end and ultimately made it a tie game when Maura Everett kicked in a high shot over the keeper's outstretched hands with the assists going to Jennifer Colangeli and Ann Murnane. BOW: Shannon McGovern, Leigh Ann Catanzaro and Lori Philbin.

At Studio

Ann Carpenter, Sid Frankel and Lee Weiner are among the Andover residents who have been playing bridge regularly at Dawson's Bridge studio in Woburn and are expected to follow the club to its new location at the Pearl Street School in Reading when it opens there November 1. Other "regulars" from Andover include Pat Worthley, Barbara and Jiggs Zamierowski and Janet Eagleson.

The studio is directed by Dennis and Jackie Dawson, master bridge players. Many people have been attracted to the studio for its games of duplicate bridge, so-called because each table plays the same hands, thus matching the skill of the players under controlled conditions and heightening the competitive spirit. The Dawson Studio also offers social bridge and supervised play.

BOW: Jason Price and David Halleron (Massaratiss) and Michael Bor, Adam Heller, Jonathan Hines and Matt Ragonese (Porsches).

Corvettes 2 - Mercedes 1

The Corvettes put their two goals on the scoreboard in the first half of play. The Mercedes were able to score in the last few minutes of play, preventing the shutout. BOW: Christian Payne and Peter Twickler (Corvettes).

BMW 4 - Camaros 1

Brendan O'Leary scored a hat trick for the BMW's and Andy Cohen added another goal with assists from Justin Pierce and Cohen. The Camaros tried hard to score further goals but were unable to penetrate the BMW defense. BOW: Greg Poore, Brendan O'Leary and Justin Pierce (BMW).

Triumphs 1 - Ferraris 3

The Sciroccos were able to get on the scoreboard during the fourth period only to have Martin break through the defense again for his fourth goal with an assist from Gigliotti. The scoring ended with another goal by the Sciroccos. BOW: Greg Aserio, Allen Soong and Chris O'Connell (Jaguars).

Monsoons 0 - Hurricanes 0

Gains Are Reported At Standex

Standex International Corporation (NYSE) reported "substantial gains" in both sales and earnings in the first quarter of fiscal 1985. The diversified company reported a 28 percent increase in earnings on a 12 percent rise in sales over the same quarter of last year.

Daniel E. Hogan, chairman and chief executive of Standex, stated that "the new fiscal year has opened on an encouraging note, with most of our major divisions enjoying improvement over last year." He added that "the company's future prospects look even brighter as a result of our program of pruning-out those operations which either failed to meet our earnings criteria or did not fit into our long range plans."

In the first fiscal quarter ended September 30, net income amounted to $5.6 million or 41¢ a share, as compared with the prior year's net income of $4.4 million or 32¢ a share. Sales for the latest quarter amounted to $98.5 million, up from $87.7 million the prior year. Earnings per share in the latest period were based on 13.7 million shares outstanding.

Standex recently announced that it has concluded an agreement in principle for the sale of its Club Products cookware division to Regal Ware, a leading producer of cookware and small appliances. Hogan said that Club Products, "which has not been consistently profitable over the past few years," is being sold for cash at book value. In September, Standex sold its Cebco Educational Publishing division to the Simon & Schuster division of Gulf & Western. In addition, Hogan added, the company has written-off certain unproductive assets "which had suffered losses over the past few years."

Standex International is a diversified manufacturer operating in five basic growth areas: institutional products, consumer products, graphics, industrial products and electronics.

Winthrop Named Director

Frederic Winthrop, Jr., commissioner of food and agriculture for the Commonwealth, has been named director of The Trustees of Reservations (TTOR), a charitable corporation and the largest private owner of conservation land in the state.

"Fred Winthrop is a man of immense capabilities," says Preston H. Saunders, chairman of the governing board of TTOR. "He has extensive experience in land management and has demonstrated unusual sensitivity toward the issues of land conservation and the preservation of agricultural land throughout the Commonwealth. Under his leadership, we look forward to an exciting future for the organization."

A resident of Ipswich, Winthrop was appointed commissioner in 1978 by Gov. Michael S. Dukakis. He was reappointed in 1979 by Gov. Edward J. King and again by Gov. Dukakis in 1983.

"In my view, The Trustees of Reservations is the finest land conservation organization in the Commonwealth," says Winthrop. "I am delighted to be able to pursue in the private, non-profit arena many of the goals we have been working so hard for here at the Department of Food and Agriculture."

TTOR is the world's first land trust. Founded in 1891, it preserves for the public historic places and beautiful tracts of land throughout the Commonwealth. Today, TTOR is custodian for 69 properties totalling more than 16,000 acres. Spread across the state, from Berkshire County to Cape Cod, Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket, they are visited by more than one million people annually. It also protects an additional 5,000 acres with conservation restrictions or easements.

Prior to his tenure as commissioner, Winthrop managed Turner Hill Farm in Ipswich, a 500-acre family farm. He has served as executive director of the Essex County Greenbelt Association, chairman of the Ipswich Conservation Commission and assistant to the executive director of the Massachusetts Forest and Park Association.

He currently serves as chairman of the board of directors of the American Farmland Trust. He received the Honor Award in 1983 from the Soil Conservation Society of America for "significant contributions and achievements in land and water conservation" and the Gene McMurty Award in 1982, presented by the Massachusetts Rural Development Committee for "outstanding contributions to rural communities in Massachusetts."

Winthrop succeeds Gordon Abbott, Jr., who served as director of TTOR for 17 years. He will assume his new responsibilities in January.

Visit Gorham Hardware And Decorating Center

Gorham Hardware and Decorating Center, 581 Chickering Road in North Andover, provides one-stop shopping for your home beautification needs. "With our expanded, spacious decorating department," explains co-owner Peg Gorham, "selecting wallpaper, window treatments, floor coverings and even custom-mix paints to match is an uncomplicated, enjoyable process."

In the home decorating department there are many wallpaper books and fabric samples to choose from. In addition, one of the decorating specialists will be pleased to visit your home by appointment to help coordinate colors, fabrics and styles. Peg explains that in the area of window coverings alone, there are so many kinds to choose from—custom drapes, cornices, woven woods, mini-blinds, vertical blinds and the new veresol blinds with insulated backing—that a decorator's assistance can be quite valuable.

Other products available at Gorham's include a full line of hardware needs and art supplies. Their stenciling department is the only one in the area and features patterns, slates, paints and brushes. Other store services include tool and equipment rentals and window and screen repairs.

Whether you have a specific purchase in mind or are just thinking about what you'd like to do to improve your home, visiting Gorham Hardware and Decorating Center is a pleasant experience. Their hours are 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Thursday; 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. Friday; and 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday. For more information, call 685-4870.

Come To AAA Vacuum Cleaners In Lawrence

At AAA Vacuum Cleaners, 267 South Broadway in Lawrence, owner Bob Jackson and manager Scott Fieldhouse sell and service a wide variety of vacuum cleaners, floor polishers, rug shampoo equipment and microwave ovens for both residential and commercial use. According to Bob, who has been in business for over 30 years, they always operate by their motto: "We sell the best, service the rest and will not be undersold." And they invite you into the store to show you what they mean.

Their helpful, friendly manner will assure you that you will get the information you need to make your purchase or repair without a lot of pressure. For example, if you are thinking about buying a microwave oven but don't know what features to look for, Scott will be happy to explain microwave technology and the acts of microwave cookery before you buy. "In this way, you will know that you are purchasing the unit that best suits your needs," he says.

AAA Vacuum Cleaners also specializes in central built-in vacuum systems, which, Bob explains, can be built into new or existing homes or businesses. Many types of systems are available, and the advantages over portable vacuum cleaners are numerous. A central system is more powerful and efficient, easier to operate, quieter, has a longer life (20-25 years) and actually appreciates the value of the home or building.

Whether you need supplies such as hoses or belts, expert repair by their service technicians or new equipment, stop in to visit Bob and Scott at AAA Vacuum Cleaners or call them at 685-0520. They are open Monday through Saturday from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. and Friday until 9 p.m. for your convenience.

PICKING A FUTURE WINNER

It is well known axiom that location is one of the most important elements in property value. Let's take that one step further. An even better buy, would be an investment of a sound property in a so-so area that will INCREASE in value in the future. Buying into an area that is strongly on the comeback trail is one way to do this and shorten the success odds.

In an area of this kind, trend is everything. The trick is not to get in so early that you are one of the earliest pioneers but early enough that there is still plenty of appreciation left. Being an early pioneer is fine if you are a gambler possessed with lots of patience. It's safer, though, to buy into such an area AFTER the restoration trend is unmistakably established.

A neighborhood that's a good candidate for restoration must have an intrinsic location advantage: say, next to a prestigious area or in a good walk-to-work location. It must also have good basic houses, perhaps we can help you find just such a location for your future winner.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 Pouchard Ave., Andover. Phone: 475-5100. We're here to help.

SELLING YOUR HOUSE

By
Lou Patracone

MORTGAGE FORECAST

The chief economist of the National Association of Home Builders recently forecast that mortgage rates would not show a sharp decline. Of course, firm projections are impossible, but a return to single digit rates is virtually out of the question.

If you've been waiting for lower mortgage rates to sell your house, don't. Lending rates are expected to stay fairly high in the coming months and - especially important to home sellers - prospective buyers have become accustomed to them. If a prospect is prepared to buy today, mortgage rates are no longer a deterrent.

Does that mean it's easy to sell? No, even if the stumbling block of lending costs has been surmounted in most cases, marketing a property is still a formidable task.

It's not EASY to sell a house - but we're awfully good at it. Let the experts market your property. List with —

Andover Municipal Guide

The men and women who run Andover are easier to reach since their move, in February of this year, to the newly renovated town and school administration offices in the former East Junior High School, on Bartlet Street. This more central location for the town employees has also made it easier for Andover's 27,000 residents to contact town officers through two new switchboards for the the school and town offices.

This special ANDOVER TOWNSMAN Municipal Guide was designed to help residents understand who runs their town. This fiscal year, which ends on June 30, 1985, Andover is operating on a budget of over $11 million. The schools will spend another $14.6 million. There are approximately 275 employees of the town and another 540 who work in the schools.

To reach any of the eight public schools or school administrators dial 470-1700. The number for town employees is 470-3800.

Why Armstrong Designer Solarian® is America's favorite no-wax floor.

Inlaid Color™ makes it beautiful. Mirabond® XL keeps its like-new look for years and years.

With Inlaid, Color, the pattern is built right into the floor, not simply printed on. The look is uniquely beautiful...uniquely Armstrong. By resisting scuffs and scratches, the Mirabond XL wear surface keeps your no-wax floor new-looking far longer than any other vinyl no-wax floor. No wonder Designer Solarian is America's favorite!

Now you can buy one kitchen for the price of two.

Many people might imagine that the converse would be the greater bargain.

But which is the greater expense: a Ruttt Custom Kitchen or the lesser kitchen which ostensibly allows you to save several thousand dollars?

Consider Ruttt's selected woods and hardware, handrubbed finishes and superior craftsmanship... not only for the pride and pleasure they'll bring you, but also for their investment value. You see, buying Ruttt today means that you won't have to eventually spend several thousand dollars to replace the lesser kitchen. It also means that you'll be able, whenever you like, to add the price of a Ruttt Custom Kitchen to the sale value of your home.

The Belgian Kitchen. Fastidious panels with the look of Flemish linen set off by touches of rustic oak.

Custom cabinetry. A guide for the serious investor. Ruttt's guide shows what to look for in each even: pictures, contemporary and traditional designs, accessories, and pricing ideas. Available at Ruttt Showrooms.

©1984 Audi

By the end of the decade, cars will be reshaped by advanced aerodynamic principles.

But you don't have to wait.

From Audi's German engineers: the 5000S sedan.

While the sleek, aerodynamic designs of other car makers are still in early prototype stages, this stunning luxury sedan from Audi's German engineers is in production and available now.

The Most Aerodynamic Luxury Sedan America Has Ever Driven. Refined in European wind tunnels, the Audi 5000S slices through air with an ease and agility that are outstanding for a luxury sedan.

So "air slippery" is the design, that tracking and directional control are maintained even in severe crosswinds. Acceleration to 50 mph is accomplished in 8.0 exhilarating seconds. Handling and cornering are close to what you would expect from exotic sports cars—the result of advanced front-wheel drive technology and a performance-tuned suspension.

Inside the sumptuous interior an almost eerie quiet prevails. Gracefully curved windows mounted flush with the roofline all but eliminate wind noise.

Superior Quality Backed By A Superior Warranty. To insure the quality of the 5000S, we tested it over 3.2 million kilometers in Europe, Africa and North America. So dependable is this automobile, we've covered it with an outstanding 24-month/limited warranty with unlimited mileage. See your dealer for details and a test drive.

Sign of the Times in our town.

It's not just the typical yard sign you find in the front of houses for sale. This sign tells you that the owners of the property chose the real estate broker whose knowledge of your local market has resulted in an unmatched record of bringing buyers and sellers together.

The sign means both the buyer and seller will be given professional attention measured against the highest standards of the industry. It means the seller can count on the most up-to-date marketing techniques.

To both buyer and seller it means a saving of time, energy, and effort — and money.

If you're thinking of selling or buying, you'll know a lot more about your prospects after a talk with us. Phone or use the coupon.
